Court of Assize.

Before Chief Justice Begbie, and Justice Gress.

Friday, May 19th.

Rabson vs Howard.—This was an action for assault and false imprisonment. Damages laid at $5000.

A R Robertson, Esq., instructed by Mr Courtney, for the plaintiff. For the defendant J F McCreight, Esq., instructed by Mr Bishop.

Many witnesses were called. From the evidence it seems that in the month of January last defendant lost a saw and from certain circumstances he was led to believe plaintiff had stolen it. He went to plaintiff's house, saw the saw and gave it in charge to constable Hunter. He then complained and had plaintiff arrested. The magistrate almost immediately discharged plaintiff, who, a day or two afterwards, commenced proceedings against defendant in the Supreme Court for false arrest and imprisonment. Defendant also, within a day or two, obtained a summons from the Stipendiary Magistrate on a charge of theft for stealing the saw. The case occupied the Police Court two or three days and the charge was dismissed. The evidence and facts of the case were then pretty fully given to the public. The evidence yesterday varied but little, except on one, as regards the plaintiff's case, most vital point.

Plaintiff alleged that he borrowed the saw from defendant and swore that he borrowed it on the 31st January, 1871, and that he got it from Caroline Nunn in defendant's house. Emma Rabson swore she went down to the wharf where Mrs Howard was fishing and asked her to lend her father the saw; that Mrs Howard told Caroline Nunn to let her have it, and that Caroline Nunn gave it to her father (the plaintiff), and that this occurred on Monday, January 31st. Plaintiff also swore that he saw Mrs Howard on the wharf, fishing at 3 o'clock on that day. This testimony was contradicted by three or four witnesses, who swore that Mrs Howard and Caroline Nunn were both in Victoria at the time.

Other evidence was given of contradictory statements made by Rabson as to how he got the saw. To one he said that he borrowed it from Mrs Howard, to another that he borrowed it from Mr Bateman and to another that somebody left it at his house.

The case occupied the Court the whole day. The addresses of counsel on both sides were very able.

The Chief Justice in summing up said the question for the jury to decide was—Had defendant reasonable cause to believe that plaintiff had stolen his saw? If so he was justified in causing his arrest. Stealing is not going slyly in the night or in some clandestine way only, but if a man gets possession of another man's property in any way or tries to keep or conceal it, it is theft. It had been proved by two witnesses that defendant said in the hearing of plaintiff that he had lost his saw and that plaintiff denied having it. He would say also to the jury that if they believed the plaintiff, who had been, in a most important point, contradicted beyond a doubt, his whole case must fall and they must find for the defendant.

The jury retired at 7 o'clock and the Court adjourned till 8 o'clock, at which hour the jury returned a verdict for the defendant. The Court thanked the jurors, directed that they be paid $1 50 each, and adjourned until Monday next at 11 o'clock, a.m.

OBITUARY.—Under the proper head will be found the announcement of the death of one of our early and most estimable settlers, Jas Fleming, senior, aged seventy-one years. Deceased left his native Scotland in 1852 and joined his son James in Canada, and in 1854 both went to Australia. Father and son both landed in this city in September, 1862, and in the following month they settled at Killynasloe, Co. Wick, where deceased continued to reside with his affectionate son—the only surviving child of seven—up to the time of his death. The patience and fortitude, indeed, cheerfulness, with which the subject of our present remarks struggled with the privations and hardships incident to pioneer life, and the Christian resignation with which he bore up under a painful and protracted illness won for him the respect and admiration of his neighbors. He was one of the noblest works of God—an honest man—and has left a noble legacy.

CAPTURED.—Two thieves, lately from Victoria, have been arrested by Sheriff Van Bokkelen of Port Townsend, W T, upon charges of burglary. A house was entered at Port Discovery and a gold watch, some money and a revolver stolen. These two men were tracked by the Sheriff many miles to a farmhouse where the gudewife—not knowing the character of her guests—spread for them a bountiful dinner. As they sat eating the Sheriff entered and clapped the 'dabbers' on their wrists. They were searched and no stolen property found upon them. They were secured, however, and the stolen articles were subsequently fished out of the butter milk in a churn standing in the kitchen. The rascals are now in Port Townsend goal.

PAYING JURORS.—At the close of the Rabson-Howard trial, last evening, the Chief Justice directed that $1 50 be paid to each of the jurors for his services. This is the first instance, we believe, in this colony where common jurors have been paid; and—as the Chief Justice remarked—we can discover no reason why they should not, as well as witnesses, receive pecuniary compensation.

FARES AND FREIGHT.—It is rumored that the rates of fare and freight between San Francisco and Victoria will be further reduced by the N.P.T.C. and, of course, by the Opposition. So, we see, in the contest the public is bound to benefit.

SHIRKING THE RESPONSIBILITY.—In an article urging registration our local cotemporary says:

"The present voter's qualification has been made especially to disfranchise a large number of good British subjects. Let those, then, get a qualification who have been disfranchised by Helmecken, Carrall, and Co, and register it, and when voting day arrives, let them show their manhood by voting for the liberal candidates."

We were not aware that THE COLONIST or anyone connected with it had a hand in making the present franchise law, but we do know that the editor of the print in which the above appeared had. It is mean to try to throw the responsibility upon others now. Besides, we are not aware that the law will have the effect of 'disfranchising a large number of good British subjects.' If our cotemporary's definition of its provisions be a correct one, it is difficult to see how a single British subject need be disfranchised by it.

NANAIMO GOOD TEMPLARS.—The following officers of Oward Lodge No 2, of Nanaimo, were duly installed on the 13th inst by Bro Raybould, Lodge Deputy: Rev T Crosby WCT, Wm Cartwright WVT, S Gough WS, Walter Griffiths WAS, A H Raper WT, J Damsmy WFS, W Hunter WM, J Soles WDM, J Ganner WIG, F C Menkin WOG, Sister E Richardson WC, Sister M Cartwright WRS, James Malpass WLS.

REMEMBER THE ORPHAN.—A most fitting opportunity for the exercise of the virtue of charity is just now presented to this community in the effort being put forth to hold a grand concert in aid of the Orphanage of St Ann. In such a case surely every purchaser will loosen the strings.

The steamer Otter returned from Hastings, Barrard Inlet, yesterday morning. She towed the Ship Dashing Wave, 1000 tons burthen, to the mill, reaching the wharf at 6 o'clock in the evening. The easterly gale of Friday was terrific but no damage is reported.

REGISTER! REGISTER! REGISTER!—Let every man who is in favor of a thorough Reform in our present system of Government and the return of proper men to work out Responsible Government, register his vote before the 10th day of June.

DANGEROUS.—A section of the sidewalk of Pandora street, below the residence of Mr E Sutor, has given way and pedestrians are placed in great danger, particularly after dark.

THE 'NORTH PACIFIC'.—Such is the name of Capt Starr's new Puget Sound steamer. She was successfully launched at San Francisco on Thursday night, and will shortly sail for Victoria. See our Exclusive Dispatch.

DISPATCH LINE.—The schooner Greyhound, of the Dispatch Line, sailed from San Francisco yesterday morning. She comes consigned to Mr Millard. See our Exclusive Dispatch.

The Sir James Douglas will go to Nanaimo on Monday at 7, returning on Tuesday evening. Freight must be shipped and letters mailed to-day.

THE CONCERT.—A few tickets for the concert on Tuesday evening remain undisposed of. Seats may be secured on Monday and Tuesday.

GRAND JURY.—This body will present its report on Monday. It is understood that the defective drainage of the city will be alluded to—and a very proper allusion it will be.

THE PRINCE ALFRED.—This steamer, although somewhat longer than the Pacific, will, it is thought, be brought into this harbor.

SAILED.—The steamship Prince Alfred sailed at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon for Victoria direct.

The schooner Staghound will sail for San Francisco to-morrow morning. She will have a good freight.

The propeller California, from Victoria, reached Portland last evening at 5 o'clock. See our Exclusive Dispatch.

The sailing of the California from Portland for Nanaimo and Sitka has been postponed until to-morrow.

The GS Wright will sail for Portland at 6 o'clock this morning.

CLEAN SHEET at the Police Court yesterday.

THE OTTER will sail for Skeenamouth about the middle of next week.

SAILED.—The steamer Enterprise for New Westminster and the label for Nanaimo.

WEAK AND DROOPING.—Flour and grain at previous quotations.

THE FAMOUS ARC DE TRIOMPHE.—A dispatch, which was at first received with incredulity, but which has been confirmed, announced the destruction of the famous Arc de Triomphe in Paris, but whether battered down by the shells from the Versailles guns in Fort Mont Valerian or blown up by orders of the Commune, is uncertain. It was through this arch erected to commemorate French triumphs, that the German troops recently triumphantly marched. It was this arch that was so carefully boarded up to protect its sculptures from German shells, and now Frenchmen themselves have destroyed it. Paris has already suffered more from the fire of French guns than from the whole German bombardment. The civilized world was requested to note with shuddering horror the barbarism of the Germans in menacing the destruction of the 'metropolis of civilization and refinement,' but there is no invitation to shudder at the wanton and remorseless destruction now being perpetrated by the highly refined Frenchmen in and around the city.

CONSIDERATE.—Squire W— was very fastidious in his notions of propriety. At weddings and funerals he was quite officious and particular that everything should be done decently and in order. In due time he was taken ill—fatally so—and relatives and friends were gathered around his bed and weeping. One of these, more thoughtful than the rest, asked the departing squire if he would like to have the clergyman called in to pray with him—to which he replied—'Well, yes, I think it would be appropriate.'

SPECIAL TO THE DAILY BRITISH COLONIST.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

Europe.

VERSAILLES, May 18.—The members of the Right in the Assembly desire to depose Thiers. The offered the succession first to Grevy and then to McMahon, but they both declined. Changarnier was subsequently chosen and is now deliberating upon the proposition.

PARIS, May 18.—Marshal McMahon has called upon the German army for aid. The German engineers are now throwing a bridge over the Seine to facilitate the passage of the German and Versailles armies. A decisive attack will come from the East and the French and Germans will act together.

VERSAILLES, May 18.—Evening.—The Assembly has adopted the entire treaty signed at Frankfurt between France and Germany. Gen Chanzy objected to the proposed territorial exchange, but was answered by Thiers and Ducro, who insisted upon the advantages of retaining and strengthening Belfort.

Eastern States.

NEW YORK, May 18.—A dispatch has been received from W H Hulse, General Superintendent of the International Ocean Telegraph Company, at sea, 5 miles from Key West, which says 'I have just laid a heavy cable between Punta Rosa and Key West, in an air line, by American talent exclusively, both electric and mechanical. This is the first time an American cable has been laid without foreign assistance.'

Second Dispatch.

Exclusive to the 'Colonist.'

Europe.

LONDON, May 18.—The Prussian forces between Rains and Mont Forment are expected to make an attack on Paris soon.

The Official Journal accuses the Versaillesists of causing the cartridge explosion. La Verite demonstrated that the explosion was solely the result of accident, and that no shell fell in Champs de Mars at the time of the explosion. In the House of Commons, this evening, a motion exempting the exchange of commissions from operation of the army regulation bill which extinguished the purchase system, was lost by 48 majority.

In the House of Commons, Mr Disraeli severely criticized the budget, lately submitted by Lowe, Chancellor of the Exchequer. He reviewed the successive stages of progress which it had passed in its introduction, reconsideration and subsequent revision, and objected especially to the provision relating to the income tax and to Mr Gladstone's saying that it was now proposed to meet the increased deficiency in the revenue, which would certainly be increased by the abolition of the purchase of army commissions, by another equally undesirable measure. The pending treaty for the adjustment of American questions would also require an increased expenditure, means of which should all come from direct taxation of the people. Lowe, Chancellor of the Exchequer, said the Government shunned an addition to the income tax because it was depressing the lower and middle classes. Charles Newdegate, member for North Warwickshire, commended the wise financial policy of the American Government to the study of the British Government.

Eastern States.

WASHINGTON, May 18.—Sumner offered the following as an amendment to the rules: That all treaties with foreign powers be considered in public and open session unless submitted in special confidence by the President or ordered otherwise by a special vote of the Senate. Conkling submitted an amendment by adding 'and all other matters known as executive business.' The amendments were ordered to be printed.

BINGHAMTON, N. Y. May 18.—At 11:38 this morning Rufus was hanged in the yard of the jail at Binghamton. He died with the same firmness as he has exhibited from the hour of his arrest.

California.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 18.—The fact that the California Pacific Railroad is to be extended to Ogden is now established beyond doubt. It is asserted positively that a part of programme will be running trains directly through from New York to San Francisco without change of cars, and all intermediate lines will be arranged accordingly. The building of a bridge for that purpose over the Missouri river is part of the programme, and means for completing the work have been already raised.

Third Dispatch.

Europe.

NEW YORK, May 18.—A special from Paris last evening says that traffic on the bridges has been stopped and a panic among the troops is feared.

The Committee of Safety officially declare that the explosion was the work of agents of the Versailles Government.

A strange story is in circulation to the effect that Capt De Bain found in the pocket of the wife of a gen d'arme the plan of a cartridge factory and a plan of Paris, prepared by Trechn.

Four persons have been arrested on suspicion of being deserters from the Versailles army, and have been removed to the interior of the city from the Ecole Militaire, where they have been confined.

Mangled remains of victims of the explosion were exhibited yesterday at the Church of St Pierre, outside the railings. The number of persons killed by the explosion is less than was supposed, as the workmen left the building 15 minutes before the catastrophe took place.

M. Gabon, member of the Committee of Public Safety, joined the French tireurs, who are growing discontented. Should they declare openly against the Commune they will cause considerable trouble, being well armed and organized.

There are now 40,000 Versaillesist troops in the Bois de Boulogne, pushing forward parallel with great vigor.

LONDON, May 19.—It is reported that the Versaillesists now occupy Cliechy.

There has been a sharp engagement at Asnieres. It is rumored that the Versaillesists made an attempt to storm the Porte Dauphin and were repulsed.

and five other papers. No newspapers are to be established until the war is over. All writers who sign articles attacking the Government are punishable by martial law, and officers who hesitate to obey are guilty of treason.

It is reported that the Commune is determined to raze the city rather than surrender it. Cannonading has been heard to the south-east to day.

LONDON, May 10.—Ten thousand Turkish troops are concentrated at Shumla.

BERLIN, May 19.—Prince Bismarck goes to Frankfurt to meet Favre and Poyer and exchange ratifications.

Three frame dwellings on Stewart street near Mission were partially destroyed by fire early this morning.

England Awakening.

In a recent article on the Canadian Pacific Railway, as it is commonly called, or the British Atlantic and Pacific Railway, as it is to be called, the Money Market Review says: 'Under these circumstances the railway will be made sooner or later there can be no doubt. With interests so numerous, so vast, and with such means at command, the difficulty of constructing this Hudson Bay Railway ought to assume the most moderate proportions. Great Britain, Canada, British Columbia, New Zealand, Australia, the Hudson Bay Company, and the International Society all want the Railway, and it would be amazing if with such interests and such resources it could not be made and made properly. In India, State guarantees had been given, and are promised upon railway capital, sufficient to construct this line ten times over, and it is a question whether any one Indian Railway is more useful than this even for state purposes.'

In a book on the Westward Course of Empire, Lord Bury says:

'Our trade in the Pacific ocean with China and with India, must ultimately be carried on through our North American Possessions; at any rate our political and commercial supremacy will have utterly departed from us if we neglect that very great and important consideration, and if we fail to carry out to its fullest extent the principal advantages which the country offers to us, and which we have only to stretch out our hands to take advantage of.'

Screws.

The New York World gives the following as one of five thousand instances that might be cited of the iniquity of the protective tariff—

The duty on wood screws is: 'Wood screws less than two inches, 11 cents per pound.' A pound of inch or three-quarter inch wood screws can be bought in England for 8 or 9 cents. The duty on these is, therefore, from 125 to 150 per cent. The smaller sizes are practically prohibited and the entire importation last year of screws over one and a half inch was only $29,000 worth. We happen to have an authentic statement of the amount of wood screws made in the United States in 1864. The manufacturers' tax of 10 per cent, paid in that year was $122,692 61. That is, the total production was $1,226,926. What with the return of peace and the growth of trade it is fair to assume that the production now is $2,000,000. The tax upon the people entailed by the tariff cannot be less than $1,000,000. For whose private benefit the public is thus plundered will appear from the distribution of the tax of $122,692 61 aforesaid:

First District of Rhode Island paid.....	$122,449 69
Second District of Connecticut paid.....	235 22
Third District of New York paid.....	20
Second District of Pennsylvania paid.....	7 59
Total.....	$122,692 61

That is, all the people of the country are taxed to the extent of a million for the exclusive benefit of a little squad of monopolists in one corner of Rhode Island.

How Gustave Flourens Died.

Versailles Correspondence of the London Times, April 3d.

Many of the insurgents changed their clothes when they found that their retreat had been cut off. Among them was Gustave Flourens, one of their chiefs, who did so. In the afternoon about four o'clock, the gendarmes were searching the village of Chateau, when a shot came from the window of an auberge kept by a man named Duocq. The gendarmes entered the house, and when they reached the first floor one of them received a bullet in the shoulder at the moment he was entering one of the rooms. His captain M. Desmaret, rushed into the room, found the man who had fired the shot with a revolver in his hand, and instantly cut him down with his sabre. This man was no other than Flourens. His aide-de-camp, an Italian named Cyprina, was wounded by a sabre cut and made prisoner. He had assumed civil attire, but Flourens himself was in military uniform. His dead body now lies at the Amphitheater Hospital in this town.

PRINCE PUCKLER MUSKAW, who has just died at his superb estate in the Province of Brandenburg, near Kottbus, had this passage in his will: 'I have very little cash left, I think; but my heirs will honor my memory if they will use part of my money in buying all the copies of my works they can find, and destroying them at once.' He was a rare exception to the literary vanity of most authors.

A. GILMORE, MERCHANT TAILOR, and General Outfitter, has removed his place of business to the store adjoining the Colonial Hotel and opposite the Colonial Office, on Government street, fourth door from Yates, where he proposes to give his old friends and new customers a chance on the principle of quick sales and small profits.

A Tailor's Apology.

The following apology is published in a Kansas paper: 'An Apology.—Some time last Winter Dr S E Sheldon ordered me to make him a fine single-breasted frock coat, to be worth $45. I made the coat, and it was a perfect fit; but he left it on my hands, because he wanted a 'swallow-tail' instead, whereby I suffered a loss of $20. This Spring he ordered of me a business suit, and endeavored to leave the coat on my hands. I told him to leave me the whole suit or pay for it. He refused and I kicked him out of my shop at eight o'clock on the morning of March 27th, 1871. He has since, however, paid me, and requested an apology, which I now make, and state that, had he paid me for my work as requested, I would not have kicked him out of my shop as above mentioned.—J V HART.'

A CHILD WITHOUT EARS.—At Oange, Iowa, there is a little girl two years of age whose ears are perfectly sealed up, the external ear seeming to be doubled forward. An effort to remove the deformity by a surgical operation failed, as no openings were found, the ears being closed up perfectly, not even admitting a fine probe. The child hears some, probably from the fact that the internal ear is perfect and strong vibrations are transmitted through the mouth.

EVERY Russian Grand Duke and Grand Duchess since the reign of Catherine I, has been able to obtain pardon for any three felonies, if their pardon be asked from the Czar on a national holiday. In compliance with this custom, the wife of the Grand Duke Alexander, (formerly Princess Maria Dagmar), has recently obtained pardon, it is said for three prominent Poles, exiled to Siberia for complicity in a revolution.

INTERESTING TO THE LADIES.—Paris has long been leader of the fashions and France the emporium of fashionable fabrics. The functions of both, in this respect, have been greatly paralyzed by the late terrible war, and the revolution which followed continues to interrupt the resuscitation of these functions. The consequence is that all French manufactures, especially silk goods, have experienced a very decided upward tendency and are still rising. It is, however, a fortunate circumstance for this community that Messrs J P Tustall & Co, of London, happened to make a very large purchase just in time to escape the great rise. These goods are from the celebrated factory of the best makers in France (O J Bonnet & Cie, of Lyons) and the ladies of Victoria will be pleased to know that a very rich assortment from that large purchase was received at the London House by the late steamer, and that the patrons of J H Turner & Co are to get the full benefit of the favorable circumstances under which these goods were bought.

SUMMER GOODS.—A B Gray has received per steamer Pacific a large assortment of goods suitable for the present season, comprising Muslins, Prints, Hollands, Billiarts, Alpaca, Lace, Barege and Wool Shawls, Silk, Cloth and Holland Jackets, Flowers, Silk and Cambric Sunshades, Linens, Cottons, Hosiery, Ribbons, Laces, &c, &c, Government Street, May, 1871.

To avert evil is one of the greatest triumphs of human skill. This triumph is achieved by Dr Walker's Vinegar Bitters. They build up, fortify and renovate the whole system, thus enabling it to defy the elemental causes of disease. Hence their efficacy as a protective medicine in districts where the air and water are impure. The weakest and most susceptible organization is rendered proof against all malarious disorders by taking one or two doses daily as a preventive. 62

A REQUISITE SUPPLIED.—To avoid the necessity which has heretofore existed of sending to San Francisco to have finished Bookbinding Robert Williams has, by study, application and practice in the largest establishments in California, perfected himself in the art of Bookbinding and Ruling, both plain and ornamental, and is supplied with all the necessary material and machinery.
